

A Family Fun Dolphin Retreat December 2010

Monday 13th – Thursday 16th December 2010

Children, Families, Young and Old, Couples and Singles... Join us on a Dolphin Swim getaway of Drum circles, Sandcastles, Beach volley Ball, Treasure hunts, Sand Art, guided walks to local village and fresh water lake, and of course swim with wild Dolphins on their terms and Natures conditions

Full program presented by:

Courtney Ward

The passionate owner of Halo Gaia Holistic Travel. Courtney is essentially a performer in the great arts of the divine; she is a talented artist, actor and musician. Courtney is especially gifted in her spontaneous ability to apply her artistic gifts and musical talents in a group dynamic in aid of personal transformation and creativity. Courtney has been exploring the powerful use of sound vibration healing for the past 13 years. It has taken her on a journey of shamanic sound discovery that lies within the seed core of us all. For the past 10 years, Courtney has worked intensively with a pod of 250+ dolphins in Southern Mozambique as Halo Gaia's leading Dolphin Swim Facilitator. Through her intimate relations with the dolphins, her love of people and her exceptional musical skills, Courtney offers an extraordinary Dolphin Assisted Therapy program during our retreats. Her playful and spontaneous joy magnetically inspires and enthuse those around her.
